Project Configuration

For all JIRA projects, you can configure specific ictime options like project status, accounting information, currency, teams & price lists, applicable rounding rule, activity types and approval.